THE TALK OF THE CAMPUS

Commencement

TWO honorary doctorates and 83 bachelor's degrees were conferred at Commencement exercises here Monday morning, June 2, as the 76th year closed with an emphasis on the arts.

Charles M. Steese, director of the State Museum of Pennsylvania, received an honorary Doctor of Letters, and Miss Mary Jane Wyland, retiring professor of education at the Pennsylvania State College, was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws for her "wide influence on public and collegiate education in Pennsylvania."

Emphasizing the theme of the exercises, Dr. Philip R. Adams, director of the Cincinnati Art Museum, urged "a greater familiarity with the still vital stuff of history, the arts." He maintained that the arts are "a reserve of strength . . . real and present" which might help to bring about the stability of state required in this "crashing, buffeting torrent of history."

President Calvert N. Ellis conferred bachelor's degrees on 41 men and 42 women.

With Honors

SEVEN of the June seniors were graduated with honors. Topping the list was N. Douglas Martin, Colver, Pa., pre-medical student whose degree was conferred summa cum laude. Other top scholars recognized were James A. Giordano, Spring City, Pa.; Joan M. Sharp, Merchantville, N. J., and Donald H. Treese, Williamsburg, all of whom were graduated magna cum laude.

Three others were graduated cum laude. They were: Marjorie E. Alleman, Philadelphia; Lois E. Miller, Tuckahoe, N. Y., and Raymond L. Siren, Donora, Pa.

5 Share Prizes

Nine Promoted

PROMOTION of nine members of the faculty has been announced by President Calvert N. Ellis at the close of the college year.

Five assistant professors were advanced in rank to full professors and four instructors were promoted to assistant professors.

The new professors are: Dr. S. Lees Booth, economics; Dr. George B. Clemens, modern languages; Dr. Kenneth W. Crosby, history; Dr. Raymond T. Davis, Jr., chemistry; Dr. T. F. Henry, sociology. Booth, Crosby and Henry are at present department chairmen.

Advanced from instructor rank to assistant professors were: Alexander S. Bartha, biology; Helen L. Fisher, home economics; Miriam A. Schlegel, elementary education; Mildred A. Tausch, modern languages.

Grant Two Leaves

TWO MEMBERS of the Juniata College faculty, Miss Margaret F. McCrimmon and Miss Marion B. Thomas, have been granted leaves of absence for the next college year, according to President Calvert N. Ellis.

Miss McCrimmon, one of the senior members of the faculty with 27 years of service, is leaving her position as professor of modern languages temporarily because of her health. Miss Thomas, instructor in music, will continue her private study of piano in New York under Edward Steuermann.

Honor Miss Evans

SPECIAL recognition was given Commencement weekend to Miss Lillian M. Evans, college librarian who retired in June. Former staff members, alumni and friends gathered in the College Library on Saturday, May 31, to express their best wishes and to pay tribute to one "who has labored so long and tirelessly for the good of students and of libraries."

In a tribute to Miss Evans, John H. Biddle, '26ex, publisher of the Daily News Huntingdon, likened her to "a picker-up of learning's crumbs." He remarked that she not only had picked up the crumbs but, from their benefit, had been able to lead others.

Mr. Biddle, who presided in the absence of Capt. Will Judy, read a letter of congratulations from Captain Judy, president of the Friends of the Library. He sent his regrets that he was unable to be present to personally give the portraits of Juniata's librarians—Miss Sarah Bogel, Mrs. Ella Sheely Wertz, and Miss Evans.

To further honor the librarian, several friends and associates were present to speak. John Avery Warfel, first president of the Friends of the Library; Joseph H. Neff, representing the Huntingdon County Library; Joseph V. Kline, of the college board of trustees; and Mrs. Lillian Harbaugh Smoke, a representative of all co-workers past and present, were among those who spoke.

Mrs. Smoke presented to Miss Evans a book of letters from girls who had worked with her and government bonds to be used as a fund for a commemoration of Miss Evans in the proposed new library.

The appointment of Mrs. Sarah Steel Hettinger '24 of McVeytown, Pa., assistant librarian since 1944, as librarian of Juniata College has been announced by President Calvert N. Ellis.

At the same time, Miss Miriam E. Dickey '49, R.D. 2, Berlin, Pa., formerly a teacher in Hollidaysburg High School, was named assistant.

Acting Dean Resigns

President Calvert N. Ellis has announced the resignation of Miss Jane E. McCormick as acting dean of women and instructor in physical education. She has accepted a graduate assistantship at Cornell University in student personnel administration.

New Treasurer

JOHN T. FIKE '35, former Waynesboro and Somerset businessman, has been named treasurer of Juniata College effective July 1. He will fill a position which has been vacant since the death of William S. Price in May, 1949.

For the past 10 years, the administrative functions of the office of the treasurer have been under the supervision of Mrs. Rhoda Metz Rhodes, assistant treasurer. Mrs. Rhodes and her husband, Dean J. Melvin Rhodes, dean of students, have resigned from the college staff to go to Arizona in August.

Before going to Bridgewater College as business manager, Fike had been in business with his father in Waynesboro where they operated the Fike Tire Service for 11 years. He previously managed a tire business in Somerset. He was graduated from Juniata in 1935.

President Ellis also named Miss Hilda Nathan, Huntingdon, who has worked in the treasurer's office since 1946, as assistant to the treasurer.

Named Editor

James Quinter Holsopple, Jr., 4323 Second St. N.W., Washington, D.C., whose great grandfather (Elder James Quinter) was first president of Juniata College, has been named editor of The Juniatian. He is a junior majoring in psychology.

Dean's List

COEDS outnumbered men 10 to 6 among the top scholars at Juniata who have been named to the Dean's List of Distinguished Students for the Spring term.

It was first time that more women than men made the honor group since it was activated as the Dean's List in 1949 by Dr. Morley Mays, dean of the college.

Eight of the 16 acquired a "straight A" for a perfect 3.00 average for the term. Students are required to have at least a 2.75 average.

N. Douglas Martin, Colver, Pa., pre-medical student who was graduated summa cum laude in June, topped the list by being named as an honor student for the seventh time. George F. Blechschmidt, Cressona, Pa.; Ronald L. Cherry, Lewistown; and Wilfred G. Norris, Ambler, Pa., all were named for the fourth time.

The complete list announced by Dean Mays follows:

George F. Blechschmidt, Grove St., Cressona, Pa.; Ronald L. Cherry, Lewistown, Pa.; Margaret A. Hershey, Lititz, Pa.; Jean C. Hostetter, Mount Union; Betty L. Longwell, Tyrone, Pa.

Joan M. Sharp, Merchantville, N. J.; Carol M. Shoemaker, Ambler, Pa.; Margaret D. Stinson, Huntingdon, Pa.; Audrey C. Weber, R. D. 4, Erie, Pa.; Iva Lou Yoder, Mill Creek, Pa.

Romeo on Campus

Nearly 80 Juniata College students presented the Masque production of "Romeo and Juliet", March 14 and 15. The Shakespearean drama in Oller Hall was under the direction of Miss Esther M. Doyle, assistant professor of English.

Kiracofe Honored

DR. EDGAR S. KIRACOFE, chairman of the division of social studies and head of the department of education at Juniata College, has been awarded a Danforth scholarship for study on religion in higher education.

Under a program made possible by the Danforth Foundation, Dr. Kiracofe will attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill from July 18 to August 26. The Foundation has awarded 25 such scholarships "to make available recent findings in this field to faculty members in curricular areas other than religion . . ."

Courses for Church Workers

Fifty church school workers and religious work leaders from 13 churches of the Huntingdon area took the second series of courses conducted by the College in its community educational services program. The 50 students were distributed in three courses as follows: Jesus and His Teaching—20; Ways of Teaching—20; Dramatics in Christian Education—10.

QUEEN OF THE MAY
Norma Gene Sinclair '52

ALWAYS A HIGHLIGHT of the May Day festivities is the coronation ceremony. Not even rain, which forced this year's program into the new Memorial Physical Education Building, dampened the enthusiasm of the occasion. If anything, the coeds smiled even prettier indoors. John E. Gates '52, Huntingdon, placed the crown on Queen Norma Gene Sinclair '52 a Huntingdon elementary education major. The court, left to right: Anna Lee Over '55, Roaring Spring; Audrey C. Weber '54, Erie; Elizabeth Ann Monks '53, West Orange, N.J.; Mary Lou McKee '52, Johnstown; Sarah E. Keller '52, Cumberland, Md.; Phyllis R. Link '53, Johnstown; Ruth M. March '54, Scottdale; Donna J. Croft '55, Bedford. Miriam M. Smith '52, McAlisterville, maid of honor, is behind the queen.

Educator Speaks

Dr. Margaret Lindsey, former member of the faculty at Juniata College and now one of the leaders in teacher education at Teachers College, Columbia University, spoke in Oller Hall March 21. Student leaders of Juniata's Future Teachers of America chapter extended an invitation to all teachers throughout the Huntingdon area to attend the meeting.

Career Days

A SERIES of weekend "career conferences" designed to aid college-minded persons explore career opportunities attracted more than 250 to Juniata College during the Spring term.

Guests of the college took the opportunity to attend classes, tour the campus, live in college dormitories, and enjoy the campus social parties and recreation.

Primary purpose of the weekend was to give prospective students a chance to meet members of the faculty and administration and to discuss careers, courses of study, and requirements for admission.

Coeds Take Honors

ALTHOUGH outnumbered 3 to 2, coeds at Juniata College topped the men in academic average in the latest grade study.

The 215 women boasted a quality point average of 1.50 compared to the 1.20 average of the 325 men enrolled as regular students during the fall term.

A study reveals that the all-college average at Juniata for that term was 1.32. Letter grades carry quality point equivalents with 3.00 rated as maximum.

Takes Summer Post

Dr. Homer C. Will, professor of biology and chairman of the division of natural sciences at Juniata College, will be a visiting professor on the faculty of University of Virginia for the 1952 Summer Session.

Top Crowd at Juniata

Largest crowd to enter Juniata College's new Memorial Physical Education building last season was 1,400 for the District Six Class A PIAA semi-final game between Hollidaysburg and Burnham-Derry.

The Juniata Sports Parade

Alumni Win

REMEMBER how the old grads always tell the undergrads how good they were in days gone by. Well, they showed 'em this year—in baseball and golf. The alumni defeated the varsity in baseball 5-4 and handed the golfers an 8-2 setback.

In the opinion of many observers, the alumni fielded the best opposition the Juniata varsity met all season on the diamond. The grads, under the guidance of Bernard "Fuzzy" Andrews '31 and field managers Ray Clapperton '47 and Don Everhart '49, slammed out 12 hits and didn't make a single error to play in the relaxed style of old pros.

The game was close only because Hank Eisenhart '44, who started on the mound for the alumni, couldn't find his control in the first inning. He walked five men in a row after a ground single to Duke Schetrompf and the Indians had three runs.

After that he gave up only one hit—a long homer to left-center by Wes Lingenfelter.

Actually, Ken Wenger '50 gained credit for the alumni win after taking over in the sixth. He was nicked for six hits but kept the Tribe scoreless.

Meanwhile, Bill Smaltz's ace hurler, Earl Detrick, pitched a creditable game and held the alumni in check with only one run until the seventh. Then the grads teed off. Squeeze Long '50ex, singled to center; Jack Lang '49 walked, George Kensinger '51 slapped a triple to left-center for two tallies; Dick Stever '49 pumped a hit to left and the ball game was tied.

The clincher came in the eighth when Clapperton singled, stole second!!, went to third on Eisenhart's second hit, and scored on Lang's fly.

The victory in golf was even more convincing and marked the first time the varsity had been upset by the

Trophy Winners

ROBERT M. KEIM, R. D. 1, Hollsopple (Somerset county) Pa., student chairman of athletics, received the Stanford Mickle athletic trophy—top award for sports leadership at Juniata.

Keim '52, first veteran of the Korean war to return to Juniata last September, was presented with the Mickle award at an all-sports banquet this spring when top athletes in four sports were presented with individual trophies.

Other trophy winners were Orlando Loschiavo '53, Ambridge, outstanding football back (Dr. J. Harold Engle award); Bill Waryck '53, Aliquippa, outstanding football lineman (George L. Weber award); Dave Pollock '55, Berwick, basketball (Jack E. Oller award); Jack Rothenberger '52, Boyertown, track (J. Foster Gehrett award); and Art Allen '52, Greensburg, golf (C. Blair Miller award).

During the sixth inning of the alumni-varsity game, the Charles F. Goodale trophy to the outstanding baseball player was presented to Capt. Jack Dickey '52.

The Mickle award is given each year in honor of a former college sophomore who drowned in 1942. It is presented to the graduating senior "who loved athletics, participated and manifested a wholesome interest in sports and contributed to the promotion of athletics at Juniata College." A plaque has been presented by the parents of Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. Russell S. Mickle of New Paris, Pa.

A 23-year old Army veteran, Keim participated in track, tennis and football and was chairman of athletics on Student Senate.

alumni. Every one of the seven alumni broke into the 70s.

Wins were scored by Blair Miller, Bob Rhodes, Jay McCardell, Frank Stasenکو and Fred Dannaway. Only Ray Korody, who lost to Capt. Art Allen, and John Burych, beaten by Freshman Frank Arasin, dropped points.

Spring Roundup

JUNIATA'S varsity baseball and golf teams, in spite of losses to alumni in exhibition contests, set the pace in the college's four-sport program this spring.

The Tribe baseball team chalked up 10 wins in 14 games for the best record since Coach Bill Smaltz's first season in 1947. The 1947 team also won 10, lost 4.

Senior righthander Earl Detrick, Wyoming, Pa., hurled 63 innings to win six games, lose two and boast an earned run average of only 1.71. The control-curve artist pitched a no-hit victory over Lycoming in 1951.

A freshman outfielder, Joe Hinich of Curryville, Pa., led a well-balanced hitting team with a .327 average. He slammed out three home runs and batted in 13 runs. Two other regulars, Fran Zimmerman, Annville, Pa., and Wes Lingenfelter, East Freedom, also topped .300.

The Indians knocked off Lebanon Valley, Elizabethtown and Susquehanna twice each and registered single triumphs over Frostburg, Md. STC, Lycoming, Indiana STC and Lock Haven STC. They lost to Albright, Indiana, Dickinson and Bucknell.

The Juniata golfers, although bumped three times in dual matches by Pitt, Rutgers and Franklin & Marshall, carried off top honors for the second successive year in the invitational tournament at Mount Union's American Legion Country Club.

Art Allen, Greensburg senior and captain, copped the individual championship in the 36-hole Western Maryland tournament, but the Juniata teemen relinquished the team title to University of Maryland after winning the trophy for three years.

Tribe trackmen closed out the season with a 67-59 win over Lebanon Valley, but dropped three previous dual meets to Dickinson, Shippensburg STC, and Albright. Bucknell and Gettysburg topped Juniata in a three-way meet.

No victories were registered by the tennis team which dropped eight matches—two to Elizabethtown and one each to Lycoming, Albright, Dickinson, Bucknell, Penn State and Ursinus.

The overall record in four sports was 16 wins against 18 setbacks in intercollegiate dual competition. Offsetting the losses were the golf team's victory in one tournament and second place in another.

Joggin Joe

JUNIATA'S top all-time distance runner, Pfc. Joseph L. Beyer '50, was stopped in his bid for a place on the U. S. Olympic squad after winning the Second Army 5,000 meter championship.

Joe, record-holder in both the mile and two-mile for Juniata, won the 5,000 meter race at Fort Campbell, Ky., in May. He then copped several distance events in warmup drills for the all-Army Olympic trials before competing at San Francisco.

Some of the Army's finest participated in the championships on the coast and Joe had to be content with fifth in the 5,000 meters. The winner was Don Shanks, former Seton Hall star.

Juniata Records Fall

Three Juniata records toppled when Lebanon Valley blasted the Indians 102-78 in the court final here. They were: Two-team total—180; Record high against Juniata—102; Individual high—43 by Dave Pollock.

Brothers Tops in Track

The Rothenberger brothers of Boyertown, Pa., Jack and Gene, scored 84 points together for Juniata in track this season.

Alumni Achievement

NOT LONG AGO one of the outstanding mergers among business schools in the East was announced with the consolidation of Goldey College and Beacom College in Wilmington, Del.

Heading the new organization, known as Goldey Beacom School of Business, is Dr. Jay W. Miller, NE10, whose title is president. Dr. Miller has been identified with Goldey College for 27 years and was principal and vice-president prior to the merger.

Distinguished in the field of business education, Dr. Miller has been president of the National Association and Council of Business Schools; past president of the Wilmington chapter, National Office Management Association; past president of Eastern Business Teachers Association; member of board of trustees, Business Education Research Associates.

Among many awards Dr. Miller has received are the Phi Delta Kappa gold medal for honors in research by Temple University in 1936 and "Man of the Year" award, National Council of Business Schools, in 1949.

In Masonry, Dr. Miller also holds a distinguished record of achievement. In September, 1951, he was crowned a Sovereign Grand Inspector General, 33rd degree, honorary member of the Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction at Boston, Mass.

Born in Mapleton Depot, Dr. Miller received his early education in the Huntingdon area. He was graduated from the Normal and Business courses at Juniata; later received a bachelor of science from the University of Minnesota, and a master's and doctor's degree from Temple University.

He has been in education for more than 40 years. During this time, Dr. Miller taught in the mid-west and in 1926 he became director of courses in Goldey College.

Dr. Miller was guest speaker at the annual luncheon in Oneida Hall on May 31.

A MEMORABLE OCCASION was April 8. It was the 100th birthday of William M. Beery '82, Juniata's oldest living alumnus. In many areas throughout the nation, old and young alike united in gratitude in recognition of his achievement.

One of America's foremost writers of hymns, Prof. Beery celebrated his century mark by appearing on a television program.

When Juniata observed its 75th anniversary in April, 1951, Prof. Beery spent nearly a week on the campus. He has never stopped moving about the country. During the past winter he spent two weeks in Florida.

An article in the April 5 issue of the Gospel Messenger reveals: "the strength of his personality lies in his poise and kindness, his good taste and reserve, and most of all in his simple, sincere Christian faith in God, the universe, and the goodness of people. . . . He gives the impression to his neighbors, as he takes his walks around the blocks, that he has found and cherished something which others could well emulate."

Records on Court

THE INDIANS' basketball team, paced by a sharp-shooting freshman, established a new average per game scoring record this year in spite of its losing season (5-13). The Indians recorded a 62.5 average by scoring 1126 points in 18 games to top the 1950-51 high of 56.5.

Dave Pollock, a 5-8 newcomer from Berwick, Pa., not only set the scoring pace with 304 but chalked up a new individual high for the Tribe with 43 points against Lebanon Valley in the season's final contest. He also became the third Juniata player to score more than 300 points in a season.

Pollock's 43 points (20 field goals and 3-4 fouls) bettered the previous mark of 42 set in December 1944 by Dick Wareham, now an assistant coach at McPherson College, Kansas. Wareham holds the all-time Juniata season high of 353 in 20 games in 1944-45.

Juniata Javelin Ace

Larry Hartline's 177-foot javelin throw in the Middle Atlantic championships was only eight inches short of the Juniata College record set in 1930 by J. A. Fetter. Hartline is a freshman from Boyertown, Pa.

Allen Wins Title

Art Allen, Greensburg golf captain at Juniata, won the individual championship in the Western Maryland tournament in a six-hole play-off with Jim Pelisek of Loyola (Baltimore).

Not Good, Not Bad

In spite of five wins in eight matches, the Juniata golf team recorded its weakest showing since 1947. In five previous years, Tribe linksmen lost only a total of four matches.

Dr. Gaius M. Brumbaugh Dies in Washington

Dr. Gaius M. Brumbaugh, prominent Washington, D.C., physician and honorary chairman of the board of trustees of Juniata College, died Wednesday, May 14, 1952, after a lifetime of service to his college.

One of three members of the first graduating class in 1879, Dr. Brumbaugh had served 40 years as an active member of the board and was chairman from 1936 to 1948. He died in Washington at the age of 90.

Memorial services were conducted by President Calvert N. Ellis on May 17.

Born near Huntingdon, Pa., on May 7, 1862, Gaius Marcus Brumbaugh was the son of Dr. Andrew B. and Maria F. Brumbaugh. Dr. Brumbaugh was a Huntingdon physician who with two cousins, H. B. Brumbaugh and J. B. Brumbaugh, was responsible for the founding of Juniata College on April 17, 1876.

Dr. Gaius Brumbaugh was one of the first three students of the college and a member of the first graduating class in 1879. He received a master of science degree in 1898 from Juniata College and a LittD degree in 1926 from Juniata.

Like his father, Dr. Brumbaugh devoted his life to the practice of medicine. He received M.D. degrees from Howard University in 1885 and from University of Georgetown in 1888.

Dr. Brumbaugh was a long time member of the American Medical Association and a life member of the Medical Society of the District of Columbia. For 14 years he was lecturer in the National Training School for Nurses at Sibley Memorial Hospital. He was on the preferred professional lists of seven hospitals of Washington, D.C.

In addition to his medical work, Dr. Brumbaugh had also been a teacher in the public schools of Pennsylvania and assistant chief in the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture.

The father of Dr. Brumbaugh was secretary of the Board of Trustees of Juniata College for many years and was succeeded by his son as a member of the Board in 1908. Dr. Brumbaugh became chairman in 1936 and held this position until his resignation in June, 1948, because of ill health. At the same time he was unanimously elected honorary chairman of the Board on which he had served for 40 years.

Dr. Brumbaugh had been editor of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly for 26 years and published a number of volumes in his hobby of genealogy. A portion of the latter are: Genealogies of the Brumbaugh and of the Fouse families; "Swiss Emigrants to the American Colonies in the Eighteenth Century," in two volumes (This work was based on Swiss archive material and was used by the federal government in determining the quota of source of origin for that nation).

The distinguished physician held membership in the Abracadabra Club and the Pennsylvania German Society. For some years, Dr. Brumbaugh had given two science prizes of $100 each in memory of his parents to Juniata College students who graduate with distinction in biology, chemistry or physics.

Dr. Brumbaugh and Catherine Elliott Brown were married on October 1, 1889. Mrs. Brumbaugh is a graduate of Elmira College and holds office in many national and state societies. They had one son, Elliott Frank, who teaches industrial art in the Alice Deal Junior High School in Washington, D. C. Another son, Charles Andrew, is deceased.

In addition to his son, Dr. Brumbaugh is survived by a sister Mrs. Alfred P. Silverthorn of Sebring, Fla. Mrs. Silverthorn is the former Cora Brumbaugh and a graduate of Juniata. Three grandchildren also survive, one of whom is Peggy Brumbaugh, Chevy Chase, Md., a junior at Juniata. Dr. Norman J. Brumbaugh, professor of chemistry emeritus, is a first cousin.

In 1946 Dr. C. C. Ellis, president emeritus of Juniata College, in his book "Juniata College—the History of Seventy Years, 1876-1946," said of Dr. Brumbaugh, "he is rounding out a lifetime of service for the institution in which he has been a vital factor from its very inception." As president of the Board of Trustees for 12 years, he endeavored to help consummate those ideals for which his father, Dr. Andrew B. Brumbaugh, had in his first vision of Juniata College.

First Coed Radio "Ham" at Juniata

IT wasn't too long ago that an attractive Juniata College coed, Miriam M. Smith, couldn't tell a "dit" from a "da."

Then the McAlisterville, Pa., senior who was graduated in June became the first coed radio "ham" in the 76-year history of Juniata. And the fellows took notice of this amateur radio operator who possesses brains and beauty.

Not only has Mim Smith passed a Federal Communications Commission test, but she also has been runner-up for Miss Susquehanna Valley. She was a music education major with a good academic average and the ability to play the piano, organ and French horn. In addition, Mim is interested in photography and flying.

Two years ago the Juniata senior met a friend who was a radio operator and she, too, became interested in probing the amateur airwaves. She obtained a shortwave radio receiver and started listening regularly.

After receiving word that she passed the test, Mim set up and operated her own "rig" in her room in Founders' Hall using the assigned call letters WN3TBE. She claims she has found that "fellow hams are one great big fraternity of extremely friendly people."

CONTRIBUTIONS BY CLASSES

Year Ending June 15, 1952

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following list includes the names of all who contributed to the Alumni Fund during the college's fiscal year ending June 15, 1952. In a number of cases individuals who received diplomas or degrees in various departments of the Brethren's Normal School and Juniata College are listed each year in which their awards were granted. In cases where contributions were signed "Mr. and Mrs." the credit was divided if they belonged to two different classes.

An asterisk before a name indicates that the person is a "regular"—a contributor for the past three successive years. Names in bold face capitals indicate membership in the One Thousand Club; names in capitals indicate membership in the One Hundred Club. The mark † indicates contributors to Huntingdon Emergency Fund with amounts not listed in totals.

All-Alumni Achievement

GOOD NEWS like the cover page of the American Alumni Council News below is too important to keep. Juniata is proud that its alumni have assisted in the spurt to the Big Ten on the "Average Gift" honor roll. This is a distinguished achievement for the many Juniataians who contributed so generously in 1951—and a challenge for 1953!
